

NOTICE REGARDING PRODUCER COMPENSATION

External Producers

This section applies only if your producer is receiving commission and/or supplemental compensation.

External producers are individuals or entities who represent you, the client, in the solicitation, negotiation or effectuation of the sale of insurance as their producer or consultant of record. The specific functions of external producer's may vary but can include guidance through the proposal process and coordination of the client's data with one or more carriers. External producers are not Prudential employees and may have brokerage relationships with other insurance carriers. Please contact your producer for further information regarding their role during the proposal process and for information about any possible alternative quotes received from other insurance carriers.

Producers who place business with Prudential may be eligible to receive commissions and supplemental compensation unless you advise us otherwise.

Commissions are payable as a percentage of paid premiums or a fixed dollar amount for as long as the producer is recognized as the Producer of Record on your policy.

Under Prudential's Supplemental Commission Program (SCP), supplemental compensation ranges from 0% to 7% of group insurance premium. The actual percentage payable under Prudential's SCP is determined based on the aggregate annual premium due on eligible cases that your producer has in force with Prudential. The cost of supplemental compensation is not charged directly to policies. As a result, your rates are unaffected whether or not your producer receives supplemental compensation. You or your producer can elect to opt out of Prudential's SCP.

More information about eligibility criteria and payment calculation under Prudential's SCP is available to clients on Prudential's website at www.prudential.com/SCP. Questions regarding producer compensation can be e-mailed to GrpIns@prudential.com. Or, if you would like to speak to someone about producer compensation, contact your Prudential representative or call 888-778-6639.

Internal Producers

This section only applies if your contract is issued in the State of New York

Internal producers, including without limitation, sales representatives, account executives and other employees providing sales support, are individuals employed by The Prudential Insurance Company of America (Prudential) who are responsible for representing Prudential and our product portfolio during the proposal process. Prudential provides sales compensation to such internal producers when business is placed with our clients. Compensation varies based on the products placed, volume of premium and cases placed with Prudential but generally can be identified as production payments, goal based payments, profitability, and/or direct or indirect compensation related to high achievement. An internal producer - may be entitled to one or all of these types of compensation. Prudential is providing this disclosure on behalf of any and all such internal producers employed by Prudential in connection with the sales activity described herein.

You may obtain information about expected producer compensation, including information about alternative quotes, if any, based in whole or part on the sale and additional information about the specific internal producers involved in this transaction. This additional information regarding internal producer compensation may be requested via e-mail by writing to GICompensation@prudential.com, or by calling 973-548-5100.
