Disability Claim Instructions

Submitting a Claim

The first three steps are required.

1. Notify your employer of your absence. Inform your employer that you'll be filing a disability claim. Ask your employer to complete the Employer's Statement and submit it to Prudential.
2. Complete all sections of the Employee's Statement and submit it to Prudential.
(If you prefer, you may complete and submit the Employee's Statement online. Go to www.prudential.com/mybenefits. Your online submission will save time at the beginning of your claim-filing process.)
3. Ask your doctor to complete the Attending Physician's Statement and submit it to Prudential. Check with your Benefits Office to see if there are any additional requirements.

Steps 4 through 6 are voluntary.

4. Complete all sections of the Group Disability Insurance Authorization.
(If additional medical information is needed to review your claim, submitting this form now may reduce the time needed to reach a decision.)
5. If you want voluntary Federal Income Tax withheld from your disability benefit payments — read and complete the Group Disability Insurance Tax Notice.
6. If you want electronic fund deposits of your disability benefit payments — read and complete the Group Disability Insurance Electronic Funds Authorization.

Prudential considers a claim to be filed when the Employer's Statement, Employee's Statement, and Attending Physician's Statement have been submitted, and specific elimination period requirements have been met — as specified below.

- If you have Short-Term Disability (STD) coverage with Prudential, your claim for STD benefits will be considered filed, when you meet both of these two criteria. 1 We receive the Employee's Statement, the Employer's Statement, and the Attending Physician's Statement. 2 Your STD elimination period has started.
- If you have Long-Term Disability (LTD) coverage with Prudential, your claim for LTD benefits will be considered filed, when you meet both of these two criteria. 1 We receive the Employee's Statement, the Employer's Statement, and the Attending Physician's Statement. 2 The date is 45 days before the end of your LTD elimination period.
- If you have both STD and LTD coverages with Prudential, and you have filed a claim for STD, there is no need to resubmit the statements noted above for the LTD portion of your claim.

Your claim for LTD benefits, in this case, will be considered filed, when you meet both of these two criteria. 1 We receive the Employee's Statement, the Employer's Statement, and the Attending Physician's Statement. 2 The date is 45 days before the end of your LTD elimination period.

Note: If you are approved for STD benefits at a later date, your LTD claim will be considered filed on the date of the STD approval.

This Authorization shall remain in force for 24 months following the date of my signature below, while the coverage is in force, except to the extent that state law imposes a shorter duration. A copy of this Authorization is as valid as the original. I understand that I have the right to revoke this Authorization in writing, at any time, by sending a written request for revocation to Prudential at: P.O. Box 13480, Philadelphia, PA 19176. I understand that a revocation is not effective to the extent that any of My Providers or Prudential has relied on this Authorization or to the extent that Prudential has a legal right to contest a claim under any insurance policy or to contest the policy itself. I understand that any information that is disclosed pursuant to this authorization may be redisclosed and will no longer be protected by the HIPAA Privacy Rule governing privacy and confidentiality of health information.

I understand that if I refuse to sign this Authorization to release the entire medical record, Prudential may not be able to process my claim for benefits and may not be able to make any benefit payments. I understand that I have the right to receive a copy of this Authorization.
