PERSONAL INJURY ATTORNEYS FACE UNIQUE CHALLENGES

When you’re compensated on a contingency fee basis, income streams are often erratic and you can face significant tax burdens when you do get paid, especially with large cases.

A guaranteed attorney fee annuity from The Prudential Insurance Company of America is an effective solution to this challenge. Structuring your attorney fees is a practical way to put the money you earn today toward the expenses you’ll incur in the future.¹

By deferring your income until later in life, you may be able to enjoy the benefits of a potentially lower tax rate. And you may structure your attorney fees, even if your client chooses not to structure any portion of his or her settlement.

THE BENEFITS OF A GUARANTEED ATTORNEY FEE ANNUITY

HOW IT WORKS

• Prudential places the fee into a fixed annuity product that provides a structured payment schedule.
• The guaranteed payments can begin immediately, or be deferred for up to 20 years.²

HOW IT MEETS YOUR NEEDS

• Structure payments when you want them.
• Create peace of mind with predictable payments.
• Supplement your retirement income.
• Receive a steady income stream for business expenses.

HOW IT HELPS

• You pay taxes on the money only in the year you receive it.
• Your income may be taxed at a lower rate once you’re retired.³

HOW IT PROVIDES ADDITIONAL ADVANTAGES

• Reduces your taxable income today.
• Prevents dissipation of a large case payout.
• Helps avoid probate on proceeds in the event of premature death.⁴
